

Professional Development and Lifelong Learning

As indicated above, students throughout the MA/PhD program are encouraged to actively participate in extracurricular learning experiences such as Grand Rounds for the Medical School departments; the Department of Psychology Speaker Series; the VAMC or Cherokee Health System internship seminars, Frontier Health Systems continuing education workshops; and local, state regional or national professional organizations, among others. Students are expected to attend job talks and brown bag seminars.