All teen camps are $185 per week except for Art, Music, & Drama, and Teen Digital Media Camp which are $250.00

1. Computer Camp for Teens June 6-10 Rising seventh grade and up (Tentative)

ETSU professor James Livingston, and instructor Greg Marlow will guide campers as they learn about digital media and game development techniques by creating the elements necessary to make their own video game. Students will use Construct 2, Unreal Engine 4, and Photoshop to assemble all their work into a fully playable game that they can share with their family and friends.

2. Teen Digital Media Camp June 13-17 Rising high school sophomores and up (Tentative)

Campers will learn about 2d and 3d animation and game development techniques by creating the art and scripting for their own video game. Students will use Construct 2, Unreal Engine 4, Photoshop, and Flash to assemble all their work into a fully playable game that they can share with their family and friends.

3. Renaissance Teen Engineering Camp June 20-24

Participants build and launch their own hydro rocket, design roller coasters, and work with Robotics to explore the laws of physics and investigate the world of engineering. They will take a field trip to visit Wonder Works in Pigeon Forge, TN. Art, Music, and Drama

4. Renaissance Teen Graphic Arts Camp June 27-July 1

Over the course of five days, students will be learning about collage, mixed media, typography and pattern making. We will be designing posters/magnets/buttons and printing T-shirts designed by the group!

This camp is for those who are interested in art and graphic design and would like to learn more about techniques and careers in the design field. Participants ages 13 and 14 will need a letter of recommendation from an art or computer teacher, sent to ETSU Office of Professional Development, PO Box 70559, Johnson City, TN 37614

5. Art, Music and Drama July 11-22 Two weeks

Campers will collaborate in writing, staging and performing an original play. They will receive instruction in some of the basic acting techniques. The campers will design the sets and costumes, and choreograph dance routines for their play. They will present their play to their family and friends at the end of the camp. Also included will be a trip to Barter Theater in Abingdon, VA. Campers will present their play on Thursday, July 16, and will strike set, clean up, and have a cast party on Friday.

Field Trip to see at Barter Theater

6. Renaissance Teen Outdoor Survival Camp – New July 25-29

Extreme sports not for the weak of heart! Zip-lining, white-water rafting, and hiking throughout the week! More info to follow.
