Special Circumstances Appeal Form

Name _____	ETSU ID Number E _____
Address _____	City/State/Zip: _____

The Office of Financial Aid recognizes that many families have changes in income or family situations that cannot be reflected in the 2017 tax return. Therefore, it is possible for students to appeal their financial aid eligibility if they have unique financial circumstances. If selected for verification by the Department of Education, you must complete verification before submitting this request. Notification of the Committee's decision will be sent to your ETSU email address. All Committee decisions are final and not appealable to the U.S. Department of Education.

A Special Circumstances Appeal may be filed if you or your family have extenuating circumstances, which you believe warrant a reevaluation of your financial aid. Circumstances may include:

- Loss or change of employment
- Loss or change in untaxed income (child support, Social Security, or other benefits)
- Divorce or separation of parents or spouse
- Death of parent(s) or spouse
- Unusual medical expenses (not covered by insurance)
- One-time taxable income used for life changing events (e.g. IRA, pension distribution, back-year Social Security payments)

Circumstances that are NOT considered extenuating include, but are not limited to:

- Standard living expenses (e.g. utilities, credit card payments, children's allowances, etc.)  Mortgage payments
- Car payments
- Credit card or other personal debts
- Vacation expenses
- All other discretionary expenses

If the student's Estimated Family Contribution (EFC) is already zero (0), the appeal will not be reviewed due to the fact that the student is already eligible for the maximum federal financial aid available. Exception: a budget increase request.

All appeals require Tax Return Transcripts for student and parent (if student is dependent) along with W2's and/or 1099's used to complete the tax return. You may obtain a 2017 Tax Return Transcript by going online to <https://www.irs.gov/individuals/get-transcript> or you may call the IRS at 1-800-908-9946 and follow the prompts to request. Copies of 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ forms cannot be accepted. Special Circumstance Appeals received after 11/1/19 will not be considered until a 2019 Tax Return Transcript and 2019 W2's and/or 1099's have been submitted.
