Executive Vice President: Come to the Election Watch party downstairs in the Culp Cave. Showing up for events is extremely important when we collaborate with these organizations. Please do your office hours; they are part of your position. You can make up those office hours in the following week.

Vice President for Finance and Administration – When you turn in your legislation, email it to me so I can upload it. And if you do have legislation, make sure you do a cover letter with your legislation. It's technically not passed unless the president signs the cover letter.
